

HON. WM. H. BOAZ DIES AT COVESVILLE

Prominent Farmer, Legislator and Member of Constitutional Convention Passes Away.

HE HAD LONG SUFFERED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
COVESVILLE, VA., March 9.—Hon. William H. Boaz died at his residence here tonight at 8:30 o'clock, after an illness which has lasted, with varying degrees of severity, several years.

Few men were more generally known in the limits of the State than Mr. Boaz, few in public life were more serviceable to their State, and probably not one exerted him in private life in his chosen vocation of farming and fruit-growing. Notwithstanding the fact that he was a member of the University of Virginia and a bachelor of law of the same institution, although, because of his fine mind and powers of concentration, many had predicted for him a brilliant career as lawyer and urged him to continue in that profession, he chose, almost at the threshold of life's real work, to become a tiller of the soil. His success was notable. It is probably not going too far to say that he was the most successful apple grower in the Eastern section of the United States. It has been said that his orchard of pippins and Johnsons was worth to him hardly less than $25,000 a year. He shipped directly to England in his own name. He found ample employment on the farm for his splendid and highly trained powers of mind.

HON. WM. H. BOAZ.

In the Legislature.
Mr. Boaz was born in Albemarle county July 21, 1852. He graduated in the academic department with highest honors, and his pursuit of legal training was equally successful. In 1889 he was elected to the House of Delegates, and served in that body almost continuously until a few years ago, when failing health forced him to give up all participation in public affairs. For a number of years he was chairman of the Finance Committee of the House, and so thorough was he and so comprehensive was his mental grasp that it has been said of him he was the best informed man in the State on the condition of Virginia's finances.

He represented the city of Charlottesville and the county of Albemarle in the Constitutional convention of 1901. He was elected without opposition and served with distinguished ability on several of the most important committees.

In the last four or five years it has been frequently said that he was ambitious to be treasurer of Virginia, but no announcement of his candidacy was ever authorized. It is quite probable, many think, that he would have entered the race but for the fact that his health was broken. He was well-known in Richmond, and though of a retiring disposition, easily made friends and held them. When in Richmond during the legislative sessions he usually made his home at Ford's Hotel.

He was never married. Funeral arrangements will not be made until to-morrow.

EX-SENATOR PUGH DIED LAST NIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 9.—After an illness of little over a week James L. Pugh, formerly a Senator of the United States from Alabama, died in this city tonight, aged eighty-seven years. Mr. Pugh caught a cold which developed into pneumonia, and his condition grew steadily worse until to-night, when he passed away.

He was a native of Burke county, Ga., and when four years of age was taken to Alabama. In 1861 he was elected to the Confederate Congress, and re-elected in 1862. He was a member of the convention that framed the State Constitution for Alabama in 1875, and for sixteen years was a member of the Senate of the United States, being succeeded in that body in 1897 by Edmund W. Pettus.

At the bedside when he died were Mrs. Pugh, John C. Pugh, a son, whose home is in Birmingham, Ala.; a daughter, Mrs. A. W. Cockran, and Mr. Cockran, of New York, and three other sons, Edward, Henry and James L., Jr., the latter assisting in the funeral arrangements for the District of Columbia.

Citizens Will Contribute an Amount Equal to Appropriation by Council.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch,
No. 1102 Hull Street.
Citizens will certainly contribute an amount equal to that appropriated by the Assembly Friday night for the purpose of advertising Manchester at the Jamestown Exposition. Manufacturers and merchants will be asked to contribute to the fund, and from the sentiment expressed by all who have been seen, it is apparent that there will be no trouble in realizing a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of the writing and the publishing and distribution of a pamphlet setting forth the advantages of Manchester as a manufacturing city, as a progressive, live and active place, where real estate is increasing daily, and where residences are in great demand.

The pamphlet to be issued will show the city's interest to the very best advantage. The matter will be compiled by two of the best writers the city knows, and will give statistics that will defy any argument by those who perhaps would be skeptical.

It is probable that the citizens' committee will meet to-morrow afternoon with the members of the Industrial committee of the Council, and formulate some plan by which the subscriptions to the fund may be received.

The Board of Aldermen will meet on Tuesday night, and it is generally conceded that unanimous action will be taken in ratifying the action of the Assembly in appropriating the $500. Mr. E. H. Wells, who made such an excellent speech before the members of the lower body on Friday night, has been congratulated by scores of citizens since.

Infant Dies Suddenly.
The funeral of Herbert, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davidson, 404 Cowardin Avenue, took place from the home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in saury Cemetery.

The child, who was just seven months old, died suddenly of heart disease. About five minutes before his death he was playing in the home and when seen to gasp for breath he was taken up by his mother. In two minutes he was dead.

Funeral of Sergeant Walsh.
The funeral services over the remains of Sergeant William Walsh will be conducted from Meade Memorial Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hollywood. Members of Manchester Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M. will meet with the members of St. John's Lodge of Masons at 7 o'clock to-morrow night at the Manchester Lodge of Elks will attend the funeral.

Little Miss Lola Johnson celebrated her eighth birthday in her home, in addition, Friday evening. Among those present were Misses Margaret, Cecile, Addie, and Helen. The guests included: Grace Nunnally, Helen Green, Ruth Nunnally, Ada Talbot, Bessie Eggleston, Catherine Williams, Thelma Godsey, Alma and Elsie Moore, Lula Woltz, Dennis Carter, Elsie Godsey, Carry Talbot, Joannette Talbot, Nellie Wilkerson, Messrs. Walter Jennings, Edgar Talbot, James and Ramie Smith, Allen Talbot, Willie Godsey, Dervy Jennings, Graham Johnson.

Linwood Booth and T. J. Williams were the judges of the party. First prize was awarded to Miss Grace Nunnally; second prize to Miss Elsie Moore.

C. H. Myers, who has conducted a saloon at No. 1816 Hull Street, will retire from business after Monday. His partner, Charles Myers, will continue to operate the saloon.

Miss Turner Dead.
Miss Mary Turner, daughter of the late Charles W. Turner, for years a prominent lawyer of this city, died in Goodland county Friday. She was known to many of the citizens here, having resided in Manchester more than ten years. She was about thirty years of age. Typhoid fever was the cause of death. The remains will be taken to Richmond to-day for interment.

Carnival in Richmond.
The Hatch Paper Company, which has wintered in Manchester, will open at Idlewood, in Richmond, in April. The report that the carnival would be held here at "Idlewood" is denied by Mr. Hatch. After spending some weeks in Richmond the carnival will make a Northern trip.

In the Churches.
Rev. E. V. Laidy will fill his pulpit in Bainbridge Street Baptist Church both morning and evening to-day. His subject in the morning will be "The Church at Thyatira." At night he will preach on the subject, "The Fate of Felix."

The sacrifice of Isaac will be the subject of Rev. C. Cranberry, Jr., in Asbury Methodist Church this morning.

Regular services will be conducted to-day in the Presbyterian Church by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Fox.

Rev. J. B. Dennis will fill his pulpit both morning and evening in Meade Memorial Episcopal Church.

Personals and Briefs.
Mrs. C. R. Cullen and daughter, Miss Jennie Cullen, of Barton Heights, left at week to visit Mrs. Cullen's son, Mr. Charles C. Cullen, of Knoxville, Tenn. They will be away from the city about a month.

Mrs. W. A. Gates continues to be very ill at her home, 1818 East Grace Street.

The condition of Miss Morton Gardner, who was operated on Thursday by Dr. Stuart Albright at the William Byrd Hospital, is improving steadily.

FAST RELAY TEAM FROM VIRGINIA DEFEATED BY GEORGETOWN BOYS

W. B. MARBURY. J. A. RECTOR. S. F. REID. L. H. BOSHER.

Archie Randolph Wins High Jump in Good Shape, With Charrington Second.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—The Virginia five, who so easily outpointed the George Washington five in the Federal games two weeks ago, failed to repeat the performance at the Georgetown meet to-night, when the lads of the Old Dominion went down to defeat at the hands of the speedy blue and gray relay team, while hundreds cheered their favorites on to victory amid great excitement and yelling, that could be heard for blocks away.

Cohen and Marbury led off, with the former about three yards to the good after the second lap. Devine lengthened the distance, with Rector in close pursuit. O'Boyle then led for the first time around, but Rector, the speedy Virginian, passed his antagonist and led by two yards, after the second time around. Reid came next, but Captain Montgomery easily gained on the Old Dominion runner, with Georgetown fifteen yards to the good. Bosher came next, but O'Boyle, of the local school, had a burst of speed, and after the straightaway was reached he let out full blast, and won the intercollegiate championship of the South for the Washington college.

A. C. Randolph, of the University of Virginia, won the high jump in great style, with Charrington, of the Episcopal High School, second.

FASHION WILL REIGN THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

Surely all Richmond women who admire beautiful in new spring and Easter millinery may enjoy a charming beauty show at the early spring opening of the Block-Turner Millinery, Inc., which will take place next Thursday and Friday.

Not only will visitors be treated to a charming array of hats of every variety, but they will vividly represent the new Parisian and New York styles.

The Block-Turner Millinery Parlor recently spent five weeks in New York City, studying all the exclusive ideas that the spring season can offer. From the many designs the best were selected. The many styles are so broad and different that you can find your own style without trouble.

Among the different styles to be seen here—and one of the most elaborate and expensive hats—is a princess hat, made of horsehair braid and maline.

TWENTY-TWO TAKE A PART IN SHOOT

Increase in Attendance Will Make
Enlargement of Facilities
Necessary Soon.

JOHNSON SMASHES MANY

To say that more interest is now being manifested in trap-shooting in Richmond is but putting it mildly. Never before, this early in the season, have so many shooters faced the traps of the Richmond Gun Club on one afternoon.

In the different events twenty-two shooters lined up yesterday, 1,700 targets were thrown, and the score-keeper, Mr. Lynham, chalked up some good records to the various contestants.

If the attendance continues to grow the management will install a new set of traps to accommodate the overflow of "shot-gun artists."

Hunter High Gun.

Hunter was high gun for the evening, making 36 out of 100 shot at, but the best individual score was made by Mr. W. J. Payne with 24 out of 25.

The most interesting event was the race at 100 targets between Mr. Bob Cole and "Poor Bill" Johnson, the latter winning out by a safe margin. Johnson's shooting was admired by all, and when the last target was smashed the large crowd was enthusiastic.

Mr. Cole did not shoot in his usual form, but he was applauded for the manner in which he took his defeat.

After the program Mr. A. Anderson, of the Union Metallic Cartridge Company, gave an exhibition of breaking clay pigeons with a rifle, the pigeons being tossed in the air by an attendant. He also demonstrated that it was easy with an autoloading shotgun to break three clay pigeons thrown into the air at once.

The high scores in 25 were Melico, 24; Payne, 24; "Flora," 23; Parker, 23; Lawrence, 22; "Poor Bill" Johnson, 22; "Maud S," 23.

The club will shoot each Saturday until the season opens, May 1st. These are only practice shoots, and will enable all to get into good form for the great Southern handicap, May 8th, 9th and 10th.

DEATH IN THE AIR

Pneumonia, Prevented, and Why It Is So Easily Contracted.
A Common Every-Day Danger in Winter and Spring
It Can Be Prevented as Well as Cured by

OZOMULSION

Under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906
Serial No. 333

Acceptable climate is the most prolific cause of Pneumonia. It is contracted by exposure to cold and inclement weather, from sitting outdoors with cold feet, by going from hot and over-crowded rooms into the open night air, and by sitting in draughts.

These are the causes, but they are not the cure. Pneumonia is a deadly disease.

The proper way to guard against Pneumonia is to prevent it by taking Ozomulsion.

This can be accomplished in many ways—by taking Ozomulsion, by taking cod liver oil, by taking cod liver oil capsules, by taking cod liver oil tablets.

Take Ozomulsion, which is the most effective of all.

CURES PNEUMONIA
Prevents the development of PNEUMONIA

Ozomulsion is prescribed by Physicians for: Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Tuberculosis, Pleurisy, and all respiratory diseases.

Stability, Digestibility, Purity, and Taste.

Price: 50c. and 1.00 per Bottle.

The Formula is printed in 72 languages on label of every Bottle.

OZOMULSION LABORATORIES - 548 Pearl Street - NEW YORK

THE FOOD THAT DOES GOOD

Ozomulsion is a rich, liquid food, nutritious and strengthening. And it is a well-known fact that the most important properties of Ozomulsion are the most valuable for the body. Because it keeps the blood invigorated, and the tissues in condition, to throw off the cold that develops into Pneumonia.

Don't wait until to-morrow. Get your Druggist and get a Bottle of Ozomulsion today.

SON SAVED LIFE OF CRAZED FATHER

Hurled Stones Through Window and Allowed Gas to Escape.

POLICEMAN FINALLY CALLED

But for the intervention of his six-year-old son, who, after learning that his father was trying to commit suicide by inhaling gas from a jet in the bathroom, adopted heroic measures to rescue him, J. H. Wood, a groceryman, who lives at No. 17 West Marshall Street, would very probably not be living to-day.

Having heard Wood tell his wife that he intended to destroy himself and knowing that his parent had locked himself in the bathroom, the little fellow at once started to work to relieve the situation. He acted with a promptness and resource that would do credit to the mind of one a score of years his senior. First, the boy threw stones at the window in the bathroom, and his aim was so good that he let in the fresh air through a hole about a foot square. Then he got a broom and pushed away the rest of the pane. It would have been exceedingly difficult for any one to be asphyxiated in the room with such a draught of air pouring in.

Tried It Again.

Finding that he could not end his life in the bathroom by inhaling the escaping gas, Wood went to a room in the rear of the house, and turning on the jet, locked the door and closed the windows and the shutters. He presumably felt assured that death would result from this attempt.

In his wife's room, a woman, went to the door of the room, and when she could not open it, phoned for the police. Officers Palmer and Walker, of the Second Station, responded at once and burst into the room. Wood was found in a semi-conscious condition. He was rolled in a little while, after inhaling pure oxygen.

To the officers he gave little explanation. At first he said he wished to die, and did not want to be interfered with in his efforts to end his career.

After the patrolman had received this promise from Wood they let him go to his bedroom.

Refused to Talk.

In the afternoon he went to his store at Brook Avenue and Leigh Street, and there positively refused to talk of the case to any one. At the residence last night information was denied to a Times-Dispatch reporter, who inquired as to the correctness of the published story. The mother of Wood refused to discuss the matter and abruptly closed the door.

A voice from up-stairs called out, just as the door slammed: "It's all wrong. There is no truth in it." Presumably the speaker was the wife of the man who had tried to commit suicide.

The officers say that the man would have been dead within ten minutes had they not broken into the room and brought him out. Officer Palmer was almost overcome by the escaping gas as he pushed in, after forcing the door open.

Wood is said to have tried several times before to commit suicide. His mother stated yesterday morning to a person who inquired the reason for the attempted suicide that her son was drinking at the time, and did not know what he was doing.

6000 STREETS IN PETERSBURG

City Has Appropriated Generous
Sum to Be Expended in Paving and General Improvement.

APPOINTS SCHWENCK CADET

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., March 9.—The continuance during this year of the very active campaign of public improvement, which has been in progress in Petersburg for the past two years, has been provided for by the City Council with an appropriation of $25,000, the bulk of which is to be expended on the paving of streets and sidewalks. A petition is to be presented to the Council at its next meeting, asking that several important streets, not included in the present plan of improvement, be provided for. The request turning down the proposed appropriation to advertise the city at the Jamestown Exposition resulted from the absence of any provision in the city's charter empowering the Council to make such an appropriation, not from any disinclination on the part of the members. As it was, the measure was defeated by only two votes.

Appointed Cadet.
Shortly before the expiration of his term on March 4th, Congressman R. G. Southard, representing this the Fourth Virginia District, appointed James C. R. Schwenn, son of Mr. Ferdinand Schwenn, one of the most popular business men in Petersburg, a cadet at the United States Military Academy, at West Point. No alternate was appointed.

Young Schwenn will leave here Sunday afternoon for West Point, where he will be coached for his entrance examinations, May 1st.

C. E. Brown, who for several years was agent for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad in Petersburg, has been transferred to Jacksonville, Fla., and J. B. Ellison has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Brown has left for his new position.

Bishop Not Coming To-Day.
Bishop A. M. Randolph, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, was expected to preach and confirm a class at Grace Episcopal Church in this city to-morrow morning, but the visitation has been postponed until the second Sunday in April.

The collection at Tabb Street Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning will be given to the famine sufferers in China.

From Jail to Hospital.
A young white man, giving his name as Samuel Daniel Webster, died at the Home for the Sick this morning from meningitis, which he developed last Sunday in the city jail, where he was serving a thirty-day sentence for trespassing on the premises of Samuel Martin. The case was diagnosed by the jail physician, Dr. J. M. Burke, and the patient was removed to the hospital, where he was treated by a city physician, Dr. W. F. Hoy.
